

96th Annual Free Enterprise Award Luncheon

November 3, 2010

Steve Acunto, Warren Heck

Warren Heck, Chairman and CEO of GNY Insurance Companies, is the recipient of the 96th Annual Free Enterprise Award from the Insurance Federation of New York, Inc.

The Insurance Federation of New York, Inc. is comprised of insurance industry leaders who foster education on public policy issues affecting insurers and the public.

In his message to the many business men and women in attendance at the luncheon, Lance Albright, President of IFNY, stated: "that the Insurance Federation of New York Inc.'s prestigious Free Enterprise Award, presented to some of history's legendary entrepreneurs continues to salute risk takers, captain of private and in some instances public institutions whose creativity and initiative enables US business to expand"

The featured speaker at the event was Maurice R. Greenberg, Chairman & CEO C.V. Starr and Company.

Mr. Heck stands in good company. Sanford J. Weill, Donald Trump, Maurice Greenberg, and Jay Fishman are a few of the illustrious entrepreneurs to have also received the Free Enterprise Award.
